

Your low-cost alternative to traditional car rental

Meet short to medium term vehicle demand for up to 47% less than the cost of traditional car rental.

Smartfleet, in partnership with DriveMyCar, delivers a simple on-demand car rental service that helps you meet your organisation's vehicle needs, whether it's for a special project or a seasonal increase in demand for your products and services.

- Rental periods from seven days to 365 days
- Includes up to 150km free allowance per day
- Includes comprehensive insurance and 24/7 roadside assistance
- Larger discounts for longer term rentals

Flexible, short to medium term solution

Rent the vehicles you need when you need them - from seven days to 365 days - at a significantly lower cost than traditional car rental.

Low-touch, especially for business

Quick and easy to implement, with costs for these cars incorporated into your monthly fleet invoice. You'll enjoy a dedicated account manager, monthly statements and reporting, and convenient pick-up and drop-off locations.

A range of fit-for-purpose vehicles

Your account manager sources the vehicles you need from corporate fleets and vehicle manufacturers, with a range of brands from economy to luxury.
